

PREVIEW

The Declaration of Independence

Thomas Jefferson

Summary Thomas Jefferson explains that it is important to explain why America is separating from Britain. He claims certain basic rights for the colonists and says that the English king abuses those rights. Based on this abuse, the colonies are independent of Britain and the colonists pledge their support of this declaration.

Note-taking Guide

Use this diagram to list Jefferson's main reasons for going to war with the British.

